Thousand Oaks Woman Pleads Guilty to Automobile Insurance Fraud

VENTURA, Calif. – The Ventura County District Attorney's Office announced today that Tyreema Brown (DOB 12/30/83), of Thousand Oaks, pled guilty on May 29, 2024, to one felony count of automobile insurance fraud.

Brown's vehicle was involved in a collision while she lacked collision coverage as part of her automobile insurance policy. Several days after the collision, she added collision coverage to her policy. The day after she added collision coverage, she made a claim for damages with Allstate Insurance company.

An investigation by Allstate and the California Department of Insurance revealed that Brown had misrepresented the date of the collision and that she did not have collision coverage on her policy at the time of the collision.

Senior Deputy District Attorney Mike Frawley, a member of the Ventura County District Attorney's Office Auto Insurance Fraud Unit, prosecuted the case.

Brown is scheduled to be sentenced on July 22, 2024, at 9:00 a.m. in courtroom 11 of the Ventura County Superior Court. Automobile insurance fraud is punishable by up to five years in county jail and a fine up to $50,000, or double the amount of fraud, whichever is greater.
